SANTA BARBARA FOUNDATION

THIRD QUARTER REPORT

JULY - SEPTEMBER 2015

Your Community Foundation at Work

The Santa Barbara Foundation's quarterly reports provide a snapshot of the many ways we are working to advance philanthropy in our county and around the world. In the third quarter of 2015, the Santa Barbara Foundation and its donors distributed $3.9 million in grants to 253 nonprofit organizations, bringing its total investments in the community to $16 million this year.

Education and youth development organizations received more than $2 million in grants, and more than $3.4 million went directly to nonprofit organizations serving Santa Barbara County.

Donor contributions totaled more than $3.5 million in the third quarter, bringing year-to-date contributions to more than $9.9 million. Additionally, 10 new funds were opened at the foundation.

All of this work is done alongside our supporters and community partners. Together, we are enriching the lives of people in Santa Barbara County through philanthropy.

SOLVING COMMUNITY CHALLENGES

Three Volunteers to Receive Celebrate Philanthropy Award

The Santa Barbara Foundation and Santa Maria Times are pleased to announce three honorees for the 2015 Celebrate Philanthropy awards in Santa Maria.

A fourth generation Nipomo resident, Diane Adam has dedicated her time and talents to the Santa Maria Valley Discovery Museum, St. Patrick's School, Women's Fund of Northern Santa Barbara County and more. Diane is a trustee of the Santa Barbara Foundation and an alumna of the Katherine Harvey Fellows program.

An avid supporter of the arts, Nancy K. Johnson has played the flute for the Santa Maria Philharmonic and served on the board of the PCPA Foundation. She has generously given to countless organizations throughout the Santa Maria Valley and is a member of the Santa Barbara Foundation's Legacy Society.

Diane Adam

Nancy K. Johnson

Gayle Pratt

Gayle Pratt has been an active volunteer for more than 20 years. Some highlights of her service include founding the EnergyPartners Fund to support STEM education, volunteering as a board member for Community Action Commission, and helping to establish the Y-Readers program at the Santa Maria Valley YMCA.

Cornerstone Family to be Honored at Fall Reception

Five years ago, a group of community leaders stepped forward to propel the Santa Barbara Foundation into a new era of donor service, efficiency, technology and increased capacity to solve the most critical issues in our community. The foundation will recognize the Cornerstone Family at its annual Fall Reception, celebrating their vision and commitment to advancing philanthropy in Santa Barbara County and beyond.

"Much like their predecessors who started the foundation nearly nine decades ago, this forward-thinking family of donors has reimagined the way philanthropy is practiced in Santa Barbara County," said Jan Campbell, chief philanthropic officer and senior vice president for the Santa Barbara Foundation. "We are grateful for their generosity and vision."

A complete list of the Cornerstone Family members is available online at: sbfoundation.org/cornerstone. To learn more about making a legacy gift to the Santa Barbara Foundation or other giving opportunities, please contact Jan Campbell at jcampbell@sbfoundation.org or (805) 963-1873.

North County Women's Fund Awards Three Key Grants

The Women's Fund of Northern Santa Barbara County recently held its 7th annual grants reception, awarding a total of $75,450 to three nonprofit organizations to support and expand their services.

Central Coast Literacy Council received $35,450 for its program to empower adults through English literacy, Friends of the Los Alamos Public Library received $20,000 to fund start-up items for the newly re-opened library, and the Santa Maria Valley YMCA received $20,000 to fund a part-time position for a certified teacher to implement the Y-Reader program at Oakley Elementary School.

The Women's Fund of Northern Santa Barbara County is a field of interest fund at the Santa Barbara Foundation. The fund responds to the community's most urgent needs by making substantial gifts on behalf of the women, children and families in Northern Santa Barbara County. With more than 160 members, the Women's Fund collectively raises funds through member dues as well as support from the Eagle Foundation. For more information, please visit wfnsbc.org.

EnergyPartners Provides $110,000 for STEM Education

The EnergyPartners Fund, a committee advised fund at the Santa Barbara Foundation, recently awarded $110,000 in grants for educational programs focusing on science, technology, engineering and math (STEM).

The first of these grants went to support the Family Ultimate Science Exploration nights at UCSB, helping underrepresented students and their families gain familiarity with the practice of science, its importance in education, and its promise of exciting career options.

A second grant was jointly funded by the EnergyPartners Fund and Highland Santa Barbara Foundation, Inc. to support the second year of Reasoning Mind in the Santa Maria-Bonita School District. Reasoning Mind is a computer-based mathematics program designed to engage students in developing critical thinking, reasoning and logic skills.

A complete list of grants can be found online at energypartnersfund.org. To date, the EnergyPartners Fund has awarded more than $960,000 to local classrooms, schools, districts and nonprofit organizations, with a cumulative impact exceeding 50,000 students.
